

September 2018

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for researching our school and looking into applying to work at our ambitious and successful school as a teacher of English.

I am proud to have been head teacher at Altwood School since September 2013. In that time the school has been on a path of continuous improvement with our Ofsted inspection in October 2017 endorsing the hard work and commitment of our students, staff, governors and parents. (We are a school which values all of our community embedded in our core values of Faith, Hope and Joy which are integral to our vertical house system.)

I am particularly pleased with the progress made by the English team. Students speak highly of the teaching and learning experience they receive with many choosing to continue their studies to A -Level. The English team are innovative and looking to continually drive up standards aiming to become an outstanding department within the school.

If you would like to be a part of a successful and exciting team working in a school which is constantly progressing, feel that you have the skills and qualities to lead in an area in our school and to make a significant improvement to the lives of our students in terms of progress and attainment, then I would welcome an application from you.

Yours sincerely,

Neil Dimbleby
Headteacher
