

Altwood C of E School Celebrates Success

Sixth Formers at Altwood Church of England School were once again celebrating their A Level and BTEC results.

Building on the success of previous years, 2018 saw a pass rate of 95% with 64% of students achieving A*-C grades, and an excellent 100% of students following a vocational course achieving well deserved success.

Among this year's top performers were Giles Gidley (AAA) Chemical Engineering at Bath, Vincent Fletcher (AABB) Chemistry at Warwick, Miles Jones (ABB) who will be reading Sociology at university and Lydia McNaughton (Double Distinction C) Business at Nottingham Trent. In addition, Thomas Potter and Melissa Drew have secured prestigious Higher Apprenticeships with British Airways and Barclays.

Headteacher Neil Dimpleby, commented, "Following our Good Ofsted grading last October these results continue to illustrate the school's focus on academic achievement. We are delighted once again that such a significant number of our young people have successfully gained a place at the university or apprenticeship of their choice, it is a credit to them and the talented staff at Altwood. I am incredibly proud of our students; all their hard work has certainly paid off! The whole of the Altwood community wishes them well in the next phase of their life."

Altwood School will be hosting an Open Evening on Thursday 13th September, from 6.30 – 8.30pm. Neil and his team will be on hand to personally show prospective parents and students all the great things that Altwood has to offer. For more information visit <http://www.altwoodschool.co.uk>
